WELFARE TO WORK
ORIENTATION

IF YOU

KNOW

ORIENTATION IS YOUR INTRODUCTION TO THE EMPLOYMENT SERVICES PROGRAM

You will receive a letter telling you when you are scheduled to attend orientation.

The orientation presentation takes place in a comfortable, informal environment. Our goal is not only to inform you of the requirements of the Welfare to Work program, but to address any questions and concerns you may have.

Experienced case managers present the basics of the Welfare to Work process and participation requirements. They will also inform you about valuable benefits and supportive services you can access through Employment Services.

And just for fun, each participant receives a goody bag just for attending.

Need help with transportation to orientation?

Call (800) 851-5658 ext 8246 or (530) 623-8246

Is there a good reason why you cannot attend your orientation?

Call your Employment & Training Worker if you will miss your scheduled orientation for any reason! If you don't know who to contact, call 623-1265 and the receptionist will connect you to the right person. Your Employment & Training Worker may be able to provide services you need to get to orientation, or can reschedule you to the next orientation.

Do you need childcare during orientation?

You can receive paid childcare while you go to orientation. Call the Human Response Network at (800) 358-5251 or (530) 623-2024 before your orientation to learn about childcare options and get referrals to licensed childcare providers in your area.

Can you be exempt from participation?

You may be eligible for certain exemptions. These are explained during the orientation. Contact your Employment and Training Worker after the orientation to find out if you qualify for an exemption.

What you don't know can hurt you...

As a cash aid recipient you are a mandatory participant for the Welfare to Work Program. A clear understanding of the program requirements is vital.

If you don't understand your responsibilities to the program, and don't participate as required, your cash aid benefits can be reduced.

You can avoid any reduction in your cash aid benefits by being fully informed. The Welfare to Work orientation is your opportunity to ask any questions, and learn how you can be successful.
