

Under the proposed location for the condenser unit of the HVAC, I was going to pour a 2" X 4" slab for it.

I also intend on repairing the back porch, and painting the backside of the building white with green trim, the same as the existing colors.